Explanation of Statutory Right of Way Registration Number BF263970 assignment of AB203301 and 284365C

Charge BF263970 is a partial assignment of a Statutory Right of Way. A Statutory Right of Way usually gives the charge holder the right to cross over the property in accordance with the charge, and is typically in favour of the Crown, a city or municipality or a utility.

This Statutory Right of Way is a non-financial charge, meaning there is no money owing by the owner of the land to the charge holder. Also, this charge “runs with the land”, which means the charge will remain on title following registration of any transfer.

This charge assigns the interest in a Statutory Right of Way, AB203301, from BC Gas Inc. to each of BC Gas and BC Hydro. AB203301 is itself an assignment of the original Statutory Right of Way, registered under 284365C, from BC Electric Company to BC Gas Inc. Assignment AB203301 was made during privatization of the gas industry in 1988.

The original charge (284365C) grants the right to install and maintain a pipe line through portions of the lands shown on an explanatory plan registered under numbers 20447 and 20938. The charge holder may also (a) clear the right of way of trees and other growth; (b) pass over the land to access the right of way area; and (c) install gates in fences that cross the right of way. The owner shall not build upon or otherwise obstruct the pipeline works.

With 25 years experience, 18 locations in British Columbia and a relentless focus on customer service, Spagnuolo and Co. is trusted by more clients for assistance with their purchase, sale or refinance of real estate than any other firm in British Columbia. If you decide to go ahead with your transaction, please give us a call.

Explanation of Land (Spouse Protection) Act Charge Registration Number CA5778392

This charge is a Land (Spouse Protection) Act Charge. This must be discharged prior to any transfer of the property.

A married spouse can apply for an entry against the title of the family home under the Land (Spouse Protection) Act. The entry will stop the property from being sold without the consent of the person who obtained the entry. The entry is subject to the following requirements:

- The parties must not be divorced at the time of the application.
- The entry only applies to property "occupied by the husband and wife as their residence," and which is owned by one or both spouses.
- The application must be made within one year of moving out of the property.

Note, the Act ceases to apply once a couple are divorced, which means that the entry, although still on title, would then be ineffective to prevent the transfer of the property.

Explanation of Statutory Right of Way Registration Number BW420052

This charge is a Statutory Right of Way. A Statutory Right of Way usually gives the charge holder the right to cross over the property in accordance with the charge, and is typically in favour of the Crown, a city or municipality or a utility.

This Statutory Right of Way is a non-financial charge, meaning there is no money owing by the owner of the land to the charge holder. Also, this charge “runs with the land”, which means the charge will remain on title following registration of any transfer.

This charge grants the Village of Anmore a right to access and use a portion of the lands, as shown on the attached right of way plan BCP13318, to facilitate public access to and egress from the lands and for the purpose of enjoyment of the right of way area as a public trail. The City may clear the right of way of anything it deems to interfere and shall maintain and monitor the use of the public trail upon the right of way in a good and workmanlike manner.

With 25 years experience, 18 locations in British Columbia and a relentless focus on customer service, Spagnuolo and Co. is trusted by more clients for assistance with their purchase, sale or refinance of real estate than any other firm in British Columbia. If you decide to go ahead with your transaction, please give us a call.

Spagnuolo & Company Real Estate Lawyers

Explanation of Covenant Registration Number BH299999

This charge is a Covenant. A Covenant generally imposes either a negative or positive condition on the property and often contains restrictions on building or other uses in favour of a municipality or the province.

This is a non-financial charge, meaning there is no money owing by the owner of the land to the charge holder. Also, this charge “runs with the land”, so it will remain on title following the sale to a new purchaser/buyer. This means that the obligations under this charge will be binding on all future owners.

This charge is a “sewage disposal covenant” in favour of the Province. A sewage disposal area will be located on the lands in that area shown on the attached plan. The charge provides that there shall be no use of the area that would interfere with its use for sewage disposal; and no buildings, roads, structures or utilities (other than a sewage disposal system) shall be located within this area.

With 25 years experience, 18 locations in British Columbia and a relentless focus on customer service, Spagnuolo and Co. is trusted by more clients for assistance with their purchase, sale or refinance of real estate than any other firm in British Columbia.
